

LEAVE POLICY (VACATION, SICK, AND PARENTAL LEAVE)

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy outlines the types of leave available to employees and the process for requesting time off.

VACATION LEAVE

Full-time employees accrue paid vacation leave based on tenure and Company policy. Requests should be submitted at least five business days in advance and are subject to manager approval.

SICK LEAVE

Employees are entitled to paid sick leave for personal illness, injury, or medical appointments. Notice should be given as early as possible on the day of absence, and a medical certificate may be required for extended absences.

PARENTAL LEAVE

Eligible employees may take parental leave in connection with the birth, adoption, or fostering of a child, in accordance with applicable law and Company policy. Employees should notify HR as early as practicable.

OTHER LEAVE

Bereavement, jury duty, and other statutory leave types are available as required by applicable law. Contact HR for details.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.

RECRUITMENT AND ONBOARDING POLICY

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy ensures a fair, consistent, and effective process for recruiting and onboarding new employees.

RECRUITMENT

- All open positions are filled based on merit, qualifications, and business need.
- Hiring managers must follow the approved interview and evaluation process.
- Background checks and reference checks are conducted as permitted by law prior to a formal offer.
- All recruitment activity must comply with the Equal Opportunity policy.

ONBOARDING

New employees complete a structured onboarding program covering Company policies, systems access, role-specific training, and introductions to their team. Onboarding is typically completed within the first 30 days of employment.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.
