

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT POLICY

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy describes how employee performance is evaluated, developed, and recognized.

POLICY

- Employees receive clear performance expectations and goals at the start of each review cycle.
- Formal performance reviews are conducted at least annually, with informal check-ins encouraged throughout the year.
- Performance ratings inform decisions on development plans, promotions, and compensation.
- Underperformance is addressed through a documented improvement plan before further action is taken.

EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT

Managers are expected to support employee growth through coaching, training opportunities, and constructive feedback.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.

TERMINATION AND RESIGNATION POLICY

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy outlines the procedures for voluntary resignation and involuntary termination of employment.

RESIGNATION

Employees who wish to resign are asked to provide written notice in accordance with their employment agreement, typically a minimum of two weeks, to allow for an orderly transition.

INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

Termination may occur for reasons including performance, conduct, or business need (such as redundancy). Terminations are handled in accordance with applicable law and Company procedure, and follow the disciplinary process where applicable.

OFFBOARDING

- Return of Company property (equipment, access cards, documents).
- Revocation of system and building access on the last working day.
- Final pay and benefits settled in accordance with applicable law.
- Exit interview to gather feedback where appropriate.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.
