

GRIEVANCE AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy provides employees with a clear process for raising workplace concerns and having them addressed fairly.

PROCEDURE

- Step 1: Raise the concern informally with your direct manager, where appropriate.
- Step 2: If unresolved, submit a formal written grievance to HR.
- Step 3: HR will investigate and respond within a reasonable timeframe, typically 10 business days.
- Step 4: The employee may appeal the outcome to senior management if unsatisfied.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-RETALIATION

Grievances are handled as confidentially as possible. Retaliation against an employee for raising a good-faith grievance is strictly prohibited and will result in disciplinary action.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.

DRESS CODE POLICY

Company: [Company Name]
Effective Date: [Effective Date]

PURPOSE

This policy sets expectations for appropriate workplace attire that reflects a professional environment.

POLICY

- Business casual attire is expected on regular office days.
- Formal business attire is required for client meetings, presentations, and official events.
- Casual Fridays permit neat, presentable casual clothing (no beachwear, gym wear, or clothing with offensive graphics).
- Department-specific or role-specific dress and safety requirements (e.g., uniforms, protective equipment) take precedence where applicable.

ENFORCEMENT

Managers may address dress code concerns directly with employees. Repeated non-compliance may result in disciplinary action.

Acknowledgement: By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this policy.
